CBC ELECTS NEW TRUSTEES

New York, NY – June 2, 2011 – The Citizens Budget Commission (CBC) today announced that 17 new trustees have been elected over the past six months. CBC's Trustees play an essential role in the work of the Commission, providing crucial support by, among other things, informing and guiding research.

Trustees are drawn broadly from New York's civic, nonprofit, and business leadership and bring high-level expertise to the wide range of issues that CBC addresses, as it monitors and makes recommendations concerning the finances and operations of New York City and State governments.

The distinctiveness of CBC's Trustees dates back to the founding of the organization in 1932 by Vincent Astor, Nicholas Murray Butler, John W. Davis, and Henry Morgenthau and other prominent New Yorkers.
